JULIA MALONE
NATIONAL CORRESPONDENT

April 29, 1999

Dear Mrs. Broaddrick,

Thanks for letting me interrupt your son's birthday celebration last night.

Enclosed are the tape from the March 30th forum and the copy of the New York Observer. I'd love to know your thoughts about the forum. You'll hear some good ideas expressed, and some sorry excuses, I believe. But the session hasn't stirred action. One person tells me there is another woman who is considering coming forward but is afraid to. The news media's indifference sure doesn't help.

Dorothy said that if you want to call her, she'll be at the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver for a few days (reporting on the Colorado shooting).

Yours truly,

Julia Malone
